Board OKs pay hike for staff, top cops

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

All the employees of the Village of Antioch will be seeing larger figures on their paychecks, retroactive to May 1, since the mayor and the village board made pay raises official at the last regular board meeting.

The village staff, the employees of the public works department, Police Chief Charles Miller, Lt. Tom Fisher and Charles Watkins, and the dispatchers, will all be getting a 5 percent pay increase.

The members of the Antioch police union will be getting a 4 percent increase according to a previously signed contract.

Laurel Dahl, who has been appointed to head the village office staff, will be receiving a $20,000 salary, plus another $1,000 annually for serving as deputy clerk.

Shirley Gutowski, village treasurer, will also serve as a deputy clerk for an additional $1,000 a year.

The police dispatchers will also get an additional 50-cents per hour on top of the pay increase.

Watkins' salary is now larger by $1,200, in accordance with his promotion to the rank of lieutenant awhile back.

Mayor Robert Wilton also made some appointments, all approved by the village board: Board of Police and Fire Atty. Bernard Wysocki; commissioner of streets, Joe Huber and plumbing inspector, Mike Ruxton.

Tim Wells, who had been on his way to the job of village administrator under Ray Toft's administration, has had his title changed from public works administrator to village coordinator. His job remains the same.

According to Wilton, the position of village administrator is a dead issue at this time.

Fishing on the Fox

Fishermen from both Illinois and Wisconsin flock to the Fox River dam in Wilmet where they are catching a few muskies and walleyes, but mostly yellow stripe bass. Although Wisconsin has open fishing in most of its rivers, the lakes are subject to specific fishing times. In Illinois, where conservation is more lax, there is open fishing in both lakes and rivers all year around. — Photo by Gloria Davis.

China from Antioch serves Air Force 1

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

In this day of government redundancies, and the dwindling number Made in the USA labels, it is a surprise to find that the federal government chose a company founded over a century ago in the United States, one which is still operated by the same family, to supply several of its agencies with fine china.

For over 11 years, Antioch's Pickard China has been supplying America's foreign embassies all over the world with china especially designed for the diplomatic service.

Bidding against the world renowned Lennox China Co. for a continuation of that government contract this year, and winning, gave Pickard another contract for supplying approximately 10,000 pieces of china a year for the United States Diplomatic Corps.

Pickard also supplies the china used at the Presidential retreat, Camp David. Nancy Reagan chose the pattern done in a burnt orange which is still in use in these, the early days of the Bush administration.

When president and Mrs. Bush have guests, be they foreign dignitaries, or citizens in town on business, they also dine on Pickard china from the china cabinets of the Blair House, the official Presidential guest house.

Now, Pickard has just delivered two sets of china to be used to make dining more splendid on the new Air Force One, as soon as Boeing delivers the goods.

According to publicity releases, when President Lyndon Johnson left office, he took all of the china that was being used on Air Force One with him.

Since then, there has been no custom china on the President's plane. The first family when in flight has been dining on the same china being used in the U. S. Embassies and the staff has been using china donated by Pan American Airlines.

The new place settings for 12 of white china with a wide cobalt blue and gold bands, is elaborately embossed with 24 karat gold, highlighted by the gold Presidential Seal. The china used in the back half of the plane by the staff members is the same pattern, only done all in gold and white. The cobalt blue matches the color of the President's personal airplane.

In honor of Pickard's manufacturing of what is now called The Stars and Stripes

China Series, samples of the china manufactured for serving agencies of the U. S. Government are now being put on display in Marshall Fields Dept. Stores, including those in Hawthorn, and Woodfield malls. Displays in all fine china shops supplied by Pickard will follow.

Pickard, the only china company in the United States still family owned, was founded by Wilder Austin Pickard and began its existence in Edgerton, Wis. in 1894, decorating specialty china items.

Pickard moved to Chicago at the turn of the century.

Starting in 1930, it took seven years of experiments resulting in Pickard's secret clay formula, to be soon followed by a secret glaze that is considered by many experts to be the finest in the industry, to finally allow Pickard to flourish making its own china.

After searching around, the Pickard family decided to located a new factory in the lovely lakes region of northern Illinois, in Antioch, a setting that the Pickard's found to be ideal for the manufacture of their top quality wares.

The current president, and third generation Pickard, Peter, took the company's helm in 1966.

Coordinating with the displays of the Stars and Stripes China series, Pickard is running a nationwide contest with trips to Washington, D. C. as prizes.

Truly an American business supplying its government with the quality one hopes to find in all facets of its ruling bodies.

Made in U.S.A.

At left, Pickard China employee carefully applies by hand the 24-karat gold leaf used on their china. Pickard China, created by Wilder Austin Pickard in 1894 in Edgerton, Wis. moved to Chicago at the turn of the century. It is still a family-owned business. Pickard just filled an order for the White House in Washington D.C. as represented in above photo. The 12 place service is cobalt blue and gold, and embossed with the Presidential Seal. It will be the official china for Air Force One, which has not had it's own china since being removed by Lyndon B. Johnson when he left office.

County Board likely to change for 1992

Major changes may be in store for the Lake County Board. They range from shrinking the size of the 24-member body to electing a chief county executive and, of course, new boundary lines for the six representative districts.

All of this is a possibility by 1992 when redistricting occurs as a result of the 1990 census.

Toward this goal a 15-member

Dinner party set for Scherer

A recognition/retirement dinner party for former Round Lake Park Mayor George Scherer will be held on Tuesday, May 23 at Captains Galley - Leisure Point Resort in Fox Lake.

Scherer, mayor of the Round Lake Area village for two terms, has served in Lake County government for a total of 30 years.

Cocktails will begin at 6 p.m., with dinner immediately following at 7:30 p.m. The event is open to the public and donations are $35 per person.

committee has been assigned the task of recommending how to meet the redistricting mandate and, at the same time, make other changes in the County Board. That body will vote on the recommendations.

The committee is expected to make its recommendations within one year. First meeting will be next month at the College of Lake County.

By state law the size of the board can range from five to 29 members. Chairman Norman Geary of Grayslake said he favors nine as being a workable number able to improve operational efficiency.

"Of course, the number is up to the committee, but whatever it turns out to be I hope it is an odd number to avoid voting problems such as we have had in the past on some issues."

Until the current County Board alignment was introduced in 1973, there were 18 county supervisors and 19 assistants for a total of 39 members.

As for an elected county executive, such a title was proposed last year by board member Robert Neal of Wadsworth in Dist. 3. The idea wound up on the March primary ballot without much study or support. It failed. Neal and others reasoned that someone in authority is needed to speak for and represent the county. "We very well could have another referendum on the same matter," Geary said, "but this time there will be more study."

Another recommendation the committee might make is the elimination of some county office. Geary said this is what the last committee did 10 years ago when he was County Board chairman. The post of county auditor was abolished. "I don't think a lot of people know or care it is gone," said Geary, who claims the office was traditionally held by the county Republican Party chairman.

Chairman of the study commission is Sidney Danoff, a Waukegan businessman. He led a similar body about 11 years ago that led to the position of county administrator and consolidation of some county departments.

County Board members on the body are Bruce Hansen of Lake Zurich, and Debra Halas of Waukegan.

Former board members serving are George Bell, recently-retired Fremont Twp. supervisor; Janet Morrison, executive director of the county's legal assistance program; Mark Leopold, an attorney with the G.D. Searle Co.; and retired bank executive Donald Owen of Zion.

Other members include Janice Schwartz of the League of Women Voters, retired bank executive Donald Owen, President Daniel J. LaVista of the College of Lake County, President Maurice Dunn of the Lake Forest College Graduate School of Management, William Krueger of Abbott Laboratories, retired union representative Eugene Rawhoff, North Chicago teacher Oliver Washington, Brad West of West Insurance Agency in Waukegan and Joyce O'Keefe, a Highland Park councilman.

Geary praised the makeup of the committee, noting it represents a cross-section of county interests from business and industry to banking, education and government. He feels the recommendations of the body will help lead the county into the 21st century.

Jelly bean winners

The Bank of Waukegan-Antioch Facility celebrates its fifth anniversary on Rte. 59 with jelly bean contest. The idea was to guess how many jelly beans were in the glass bottle. Shirley Hager of Fox Lake won the existing customer contest with a guess of 3,250, while Batty Chapman of Antioch won

Fogelson Companies buys 465-acre Pedersen plot

Fogelson Companies, developer of Hunt Club Farms, the renowned equestrian community in Lake County, has reached agreement with the Alfred and Florence Pedersen of Antioch for the purchase of the largest undeveloped parcel on the Chain of Lakes.

B.J. Spathies, president of Fogelson Development Corp. announced that planning studies for the 465 acres, running along Rte. 59 to Bowles Rd. and west to Lake Marie, are underway. "It is our intention to preserve and enhance the natural beauty and character of this property," said Spathies. Currently zoned for residential and commercial uses in Antioch, the land is rolling and wooded with frontage on Lake Marie.

In selecting Fogelson Companies as purchasers, Mr. and Mrs. Pedersen stated, "We have watched their work and attention to detail, and feel their commitment to environmental responsibility and sense of aesthetics makes them the logical choice as developers of this special property."

Eve B. Lee is the exclusive broker on the transaction. Lee also head the marketing and sales operation for Fogelson's other developments in Lake County.

B.J. Spathies indicated that the planning and development team will complete its initial findings over the next several months and will then meet with Antioch officials as to specifics of the proposed development.

Fogelson Companies, established in 1955 by Gerald W. Fogelson, president and chief executive officer, recently announced Central Station, a one billion dollar complex to be built next to Soldier Field in Chicago.

The company operates residential, commercial, and industrial developments in northwest Indiana, Illinois, and

Grote wins twice, ACHS looks to regional

Timing, they say, is everything in baseball. Just ask Antioch's Dan Grote.

The senior picked up two wins last week in North Suburban Conference play over Lake Forest and Fenton to raise his record to 4-2 overall, 3-2 in the NSC.

"Dan has pinpoint accuracy. He can get the ball over anywhere on the plate," Antioch Coach Greg Decker said.

Grote's accomplishments are even more important to the Sequoits when one considers another starter, Mike Bablo, is out for the season with a shoulder injury and the other Antioch pitchers have been struggling.

Grote, a senior, was the winning pitcher in a 3-1 win over Fenton Saturday. Antioch had lost to the Bison 8-0 in the first game.

Grote struckout four and walked two in the win, which bettered Antioch's record to 8-15-1 overall, 5-11 in the NSC.

Jon DeBernardis was the leading hitter for Antioch for the week, hitting at a .490 clip, seven hits in 11 at bats.

Defensively, Antioch

shortstop Craig Askew earned praised from Decker. "He made some spectacular plays," Decker said.

Askew also came up with a game-deciding home run in the seventh inning.

"It was a Grote-Askew week for Antioch," Decker summarized.

The Sequoits are completing the regular season this week with two games against North Chicago. They then begin the Waukegan West regional May 23.

"I hope we get a seed in the top 10," Decker said.

Sequoits' bats sparkle in four-game streak

Strong hitting attacks in four straight games have given Antioch's softball team a chance to finish the North Suburban Conference season at .500.

The Sequoits swept Lake Forest 11-8 and 14-4 before beating Fenton twice, 17-9 and 9-6.

In the Fenton doubleheader Saturday, Kelly Maple was the winning pitcher in both games.

"She was very consistent," Antioch Coach Ken Anderson said.

Jenny Hagen led the Antioch hitters with six hits in seven at bats on the day. Anderson also praised the hitting of Kelly Pramshafer, Denise Bosck and Jenny Harris. Dale Ramig contributed a triple.

"The team has hit the best we've hit all season," Anderson said.

The 11-8 win over Lake Forest featured a rally from an 8-7 deficit.

Antioch finished the regular season with two games against North Chicago before competing in next week's Warren regional.

Picnic for handicapped May 25

Laud No. 1 dealer

The current issue of Chicago Consumer magazine honors Lyons-Ryan Ford of 104 Rte. 173 in Antioch as one of the leading car dealers in the Chicago area.

Of the 23 largest dealers in Ford's Chicago district, which covers parts of Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, Lyons-Ryan Ford earned the Number One—the best—customer satisfaction score.

Rankings are based on statistics compiled by Ford Motor Co. Ford calls its index of customer satisfaction quality commitment—performance, or QCP. It is calculated from replies to questionnaires sent by Ford to buyers of new cars and trucks over an 11-month period.

A copy of the report and instructions on how to read it are included in the Chicago Consumer article, "Who Really Has the Best Deal on a New Car?"

Lyons-Ryan Ford also ranked high, compared to all 171 dealers in Ford's Chicago district, in other performance measures reported by Chicago Consumer, including fifth in new retail truck sales. Retail sales exclude fleet sales, defined as 10 or more vehicles to a single buyer.

"Lyons - Ryan Ford's showing is a credit to its superlative staff, headed by Pat Ryan, general manager.

Brankin wins bronze at Special Olympics

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380

Nothing I like better than sharing success stories with you, so read on while I extend a big "Hip, Hip Hooray" to a very special little boy. Mom and Dad Brankin are very proud of eight-year-old Patrick Jay (P.J.) on winning a bronze medal in the 50-meter run during the Special Olympic competitions.

The track and field competitions were held at Aurora East High School on Saturday, May 6. This was the Northeast Regional meet for the whole state of Illinois. Patrick, who lives in our home town and attends Laramount School, is certainly off to a flying start in competing, as this is his first year to be eligible to compete.

P.J. really enjoys sports, and will also be playing T-ball this summer. He also enjoys attending the summer day camp program sponsored by Antioch Parks and Recreation. Congratulations, Patrick, keep up the good work!

Grass Lake Jr. High
Wednesday, May 10, was the Junior High Awards Banquet at Grass Lake School, and a banquet it was. PTO supplied the meet, and all the guests brought a dish to pass. Each dish and dessert looked and mom's and the seven grade homeroom teacher. The seven grade truly outdid themselves and entertained the graduates in style. Now the competition begins, and "Putting' on the Ritz" goes you should loan the nest to the historical society for awhile so it can be enjoyed by many.

AUGS

Mark the following dates on your calendar if you are a member of the Antioch Upper Grade School. All parents and students are invited to attend the annual student art exhibit at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, May 23. That same evening, the choir concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. The graduation dinner/dance will be held on May 30, and the graduation is at 8 p.m. on June 1. The graduation will be held at the high school.

Halings Honkers

Halings Honkers' Snowmobile Club had their last meeting of the season at the home of Renate and Dick Wleziem. Marge Gifford was elected as the new president of the club, and she was presented a gavel with a carnation attached to it. The secretary is Russ (Bunny) Gilday, and the treasurer is Al Benning. Dick Wleziem is the vice president. Hope you all have more snow next year to enjoy riding your machines.

Grass Lake School

Don't forget the Sunday, May 21, Fun Fair at Grass Lake School. The time of the fair is 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. In conjunction with the fair, there will be a huge outdoor arts and crafts show—weather permitting. If you are an art and crafter, on specialize in whatever, you can still be a part of this portion of the fair. Pam Cardis, chairperson, tells me there will be no charge to anyone wanting to set up a booth, but the committee is asking sellers for a raffle donation. The Antioch Rescue Squad will also be on hand from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. for blood pressure screening. The Girl Scouts will be present to handle registration for all Girl Scout levels. The Daisy Scouts will be selling helium balloons, while the Brownies sell popcorn and the Junior Troop do face painting. There will be loads of games and prizes for kids of all ages. For more information, you may contact Pam Cardis through the school.

There was a good turnout at the May 3 PTO meeting at GLS. Jan Lichford became the new PTO secretary, so Alice Fleming was able to retire her pencil and pad of paper. Dave Jones became the vice president, and John Cardis moved up to the presidency. Pam Izenstark remained on as the treasurer for one more year. The next scheduled PTO meeting will be the September open house meeting.

Etc.
Let's see, who shall I say hello to this week? Come on down—Wally Henning, Jan Cole, Trudy Grob, Millie Morenz, Joan Ward, Miko Christopolus and Deanna Olenick. Now get crackin' and call me with some news.

Hometown Goodies

tasted better than the next. This is an annual event at the school, and is the evening the junior high students receive recognition for scholastic achievement, citizenship, sports, etc.

The evening ended up with the revealing of the class valedictorian and salutatorian. The competition for these honors was overwhelming. These honor students are chosen on the basis of their grades from sixth through eighth grades. The grades were reviewed by many in order to make the right choice, and was truly a close contest.

A special hooray to Kathy Harris for earning the valedictorian honor, and to Jenny Brausam for being chosen salutatorian. Now you two can enjoy your class trip and relax for three months before continuing your hard hard at ACHS. Congratulations to you both on a job well done.

They referred to it as the Graduation Dinner/Dance, but that was truly an understatement. Not even the classiest big city ballroom could have outdone the beautiful decorations adorning the Grass Lake School gym on May 5. The decorations boasted the theme "Puttin' on the Ritz," and the theme was appropriate as all present were definitely living up to it.

As the gorgeous young ladies and handsome young men arrived, they walked over a silver and blue star-lined bridge. At the end of the bridge was an authentic city street lamp. In the distance was an eloquently decorated restaurant, complete with shimmering chandeliers, bordered by tall skyscraper buildings constructed of huge, artistically decorated appliance boxes.

On top of the city was an enormous tilted top hat. In the center of the room was a gigantic flocked archway decorated with shimmering metallic violet stars. Every corner of the gym was decorated to perfection, including the wall bearing a gigantic mural which featured a night view of a city.

The archway was the gathering place for pictures, and I was overwhelmed with all the beautiful dresses and suits worn by the young ladies and gentlemen. In keeping with tradition, this dance is sponsored and coordinated by the seventh grade class under the guidance of the room advisor, down in history as a hard act to follow. Congratulations to all on a job well done.

Moose officers elected

The following people were installed as officers for "Women of the Moose" in Antioch on Saturday, April 29. senior region, Margie Turner; junior graduate region, Ruth Rynders; junior region, Clare Godfrey; chaplain, Dorinna Skrlac; treasurer, Ruth Gussarson; recorder, Judith Kelly; guide, Sandra Grube; Argus, Carol Jurgenson; sentinel, Carole Deutsch.

ALGS news

The Antioch Lower Grade second graders are in the news and so are their baby chicks and only goose. As a class project they have been hatching chicken, duck, goose eggs. As of May 3, they became parents 24 chicks and one goose. The ducklings are due to hatch on May 19. They are using six incubators and three new ones were purchased by the PTO.

The Lake County Farm Bureau donated a farm unit to ALGS to share with Oakland School containing different types of seeds, vegetables, farm equipment and brochures. The first grade class made a collage of farm ideas for the second grade. They went to Hoppe Homestead Farm in Waterford, Wisc.

ALGS will once again be doing the summer reading program sponsored by the PTO. The "Bingo Sheets" will be sent home the last week of school and students will earn prizes for each category completed. Bill Hoffman will be at the ALGS on Wednesday, May 24, at 1 p.m. to present his "Exotic Animal Show." The volunteer tea for the ALGS will be at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 25, in the cafeteria.

Oakland Grade School

Kelli Love, a student at Oakland Grade School, discovered an unusual nest blown out of a tree. Kelli was kind enough to bring it to school and share the beauty of the unique nest with her classmates. The nest was made from horse hair from Kelli's own horses, Dawn and Diesel. The hairs were actually woven into a basket to hang from the branch of a tree like a cradle. The students researched bird books from the library and discovered the nest was made by a Baltimore Oriole. Kelli, maybe

Petty skating party

Village pursues add on of Traco's neighbors

While waiting for the end of May when the time given by the Village of Antioch to Traco Inc. to clean up its act on Rte. 83 just north of the village expires, the village board has proceeded with plans to complete the annexation of properties surrounding Traco.

The plan is, for the village to force-annex the Traco site and have more say so about Traco's business operations and the site condition.

The board is taking steps to annex an old railroad right-of-way, about 30 feet by 200 feet, just over the Illinois-Wisconsin border. The property is owned by Henry Smith who has told the board he would go along with the annexation of the small strip of his land, not the land on which he lives.

Traco is a chemical manufacturer who moved to Antioch after the original Traco factory in North Chicago exploded and burned last year.

At the same board meeting, the board put Phase 3 of Pine Hill Lakes on hold until the developer submits the final papers on Pine Hill Lakes one and two for village board approval.

Keeping Rte. 53 alive

There is fairly broad support for the extension of Rte. 53 into the heart of Lake County. Hard-core opposition lies with residents of Long Grove and Hawthorn Woods who will be impacted heavily by construction and environmentalists.

Otherwise, the public is perceiving construction of the six-lane superhighway from the present Lake-Cook county line terminus north to a point south of Grayslake as an important part of highway transportation system of the future. That is why the Illinois Dept. of Transportation is proceeding with right-of-way acquisition and $4 million has been made available for the required environmental impact study.

Public support for the controversial highway was evidenced in survey conducted jointly by Sen. Jack Schaeffer (R-McHenry County) and State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa). Schaeffer found particularly significant support for Rte. 53 in Fremont Twp. where 45 percent of those surveyed wanted to begin construction now and 13 percent said to begin construction later, leaving 40 percent in the heart of the opposition opposed to Rte. 53 in any way, shape or form.

Without doubt, politicians normally disposed to "progress" will look kindly on numbers like these. Perhaps even opponents of Rte. 53 will read good news into the same results. That's the way surveys go.

More significantly, Rte. 53 plans are being kept alive with more surveys, funding for the environmental impact study and chipping away here and there for right-of-way acquisition even though officialdom is in agreement that construction funds are not available and won't be for some time. The fact of the matter is that construction funds don't have to be available to keep Rte. 53 planning moving forward. Even the staunchest proponents don't see the highway entering construction stages until about the year 2000.

By that time, there will be more public pressure for building Rte. 53, and political leaders and highway builders hope the money will be available. The reality is that the pro-Rte. 53 bloc has time on their side. And they know it.

The game plays on

There was some fancy political footwork in the wake of the rough and tumble spring elections that left more than a few voters breathless and angry. We can't say that we blame them for being hot under the collar.

For mischief and maneuvering, the 1989 election contributed the following gems to posterity:

- In Lake Zurich, a "non-resident" ran and was elected village trustee. After the votes were counted, Philip Light said he was moving to Florida.

- In Round Lake Park, a candidate apparently ran for police chief more than trustee under which his name was listed on the ballot. As soon as the dust cleared, Inocencio Saldivar was appointed police chief. Saldivar was a veteran of the Libertyville police force.

- Newly elected Mundelein Mayor Marilyn Sindles immediately became involved in a legal snarl created by the outgoing administration attempting to fill the vacated seat of Trustee Gerard Howland with outgoing Trustee Dick Starkey, who was defeated for mayor.

- Wadsworth probably had the capper for confusion when Joyce Shelley lost out in a bid for re-election and resigned the last day before the vote canvas so she could accept an appointment to fill out an inexperienced two-year term. After a public outcry, she resigned again.

We're not quite sure what these examples of post-election fallout mean. Maybe Yogi Berra put it properly with his immortal words, "It ain't over until it's over." Even at the grassroots level, politics is an ongoing game.

Walk, songs take drug fight to youngsters

by BILL SCHROEDER

There are some ever so slight signs that society is beginning to turn the tide in the battle against drugs and substance abuse.

If that's true, credit efforts in the schools, especially elementary grades, to get the message across that drugs and alcohol are ruinous.

Students at Hawthorn Intermediate School, which has won national honors for drug awareness work, highlighted a week of intensive anti-drug work with a walk staged by their Just Say No Club. They invited me to join the walk, and it was an eye-opening experience.

The Walkers hiked from their classrooms on Rte. 60 to a lower grade building in Vernon Hills. Heading the march were Mayor Barbara Williams of Vernon Hills, Mayor JoAnn Eckmann of Libertyville and this columnist.

The idea was to have upper graders make a presentation to younger children. Adults witnessed the fifth grade class of Anne Buckton sing two songs for a class of second grader. "Say No to Drugs," we learned, is a favorite with the youngsters. There's some catchy rhyming, like "user, boozier, loser." Kids remember. The class did an original "Drug Busters," featuring some fancy footwork. The key line was "Who you gonna call?" when the pusher comes around. Drug Buster, for sure.

The link between the older children as role models for the younger ones was natural. That's the way to get the message across. Start early.

Mayor Eckmann pointed out proudly that Libertyville has achieved national acclaim for drug awareness programs being conducted for high school students.

If a walk and some songs will do it, we're all for more Just Say No Club events to focus on the dangers of substance abuse. We'll even join more walks.

GOOD TIME—A group of veterans from the North Chicago VA Medical Center had a lively time Tuesday, May 16, at the Round Lake Beach McDonald's, where they were served lunch and enjoyed games and conversation. The outing was arranged by members of the Grayslake VFW Post. Nice to know our veterans aren't forgotten.

DIVIDED LOYALTY — Office friends of Betty Butler, all Cub fans, had mixed emotions when they went to Wrigley Field to see the Cubs battle the San Francisco Giants. Mrs. Butler, who is employed by the Village of Libertyville, is the mother of Brett Butler, ace lead-off man for the Giants and San Francisco's star center-fielder. "In a situation like that, I mainly want to see Brett do well," observed Mrs. Butler. The group cheered for both teams.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—It was "all hands on deck" last weekend, as everyone in the clan turned out to help Bill and Lisa move into their newly built home. Going from a small apartment to a three-bedroom home didn't seem like such a big deal at first, but even young marrieds accumulate a lot of goods in a short time. For one thing, all the wedding gifts came out of storage.

Letters To The Editor

Deserve death penalty

Editor:

I, too, knew Esther Hanson. Some 20 years ago, I was one of the neighborhood children living in Shaw Subdivision, and Mrs. Hanson was a sweet, chatty old lady who lived in a quaint little house at the end of a dead end street.

I sold Christmas cards to her for many years, and band candy, and probably Girl Scout cookies as well. She always invited me in for cookies and talked in a heavy Scandinavian accent. I think she was lonely. I can't imagine that she posed any threat to a pair of near-adult men, then or now, and certainly they must have known they had the upper hand. A cold blooded murder such as this one surely cries out for the death penalty. Why should these men spend years in "rehabilitation" at our expense so that they can become repeat offenders?

It is a sad commentary of our society that the elderly, in addition to so many other hardships, must live each day knowing that they are targets for crime simply because they are old.

It can't be easy for them to understand that our youth place such small value on human lives. But before we can do anything, don't we need to identify the cause of this deterioration? Is it television? The high incidence of divorce? The end of the extended family? Drug abuse? These, and many other social problems, have been blamed for weakened morality and values in our country, but where do values begin? Have parents failed to give their children a clear sense of right and wrong, and respect for all living things?

Children do, indeed, learn what they live, and it is unrealistic to expect Pulitzer Prize winners from homes of parents who don't care themselves. Although it is true that our children will grow up regardless of the environment we provide, our own futures may well depend on our commitment to theirs.

Writer needs to be 'watched'

Editor:

In response to Bill Schroeder's column, concerning Esther Hanson, killed for $5, and his "no punishment is worth it" Viewpoint.

I read that column three times. I couldn't believe it. Was there a paragraph missing? Did he really say that Groggin and Makowski aren't worth all the cost and trouble it will take taxpayers to put them behind bars? Did he really say that we should turn them loose to live in remorse for their terrible deeds?

If Mr. Schroeder's tongue wasn't planted firmly in his cheek when he wrote that column, then I think it is time for him to retire to one of those little cottages in Shaw Subdivision. Instead of a gold watch, I suggest you give him a nice little handgun for protection, because he is going to need it to protect himself from meandering youths who like to bop old people on their heads with tire irons, especially if the Lake County law enforcers agree with his viewpoint.

This is one taxpayer who doesn't mind how much it costs to keep youth like that away from the rest of us.

Skateboarding dangers

Editor:

Summer's almost here and people are out biking, walking, and the kids on skateboards.

I think the parents should address this issue with their kids, because it's getting out of hand.

So far this spring in two different locations in town I was driving and the kids are skateboarding in the middle of my lane. On one occasion the boy had flipped over, and if I wasn't being cautious I could have hit him.

I don't have children, but I am concerned about children. I think these skateboards, as I've seen them used, are dangerous, and I think the parents should start taking action before there is a tragedy.

Results not representative

Editor:

Who does Rep. Churchill represent? I know the taxpayers pay his salary. I know he polled 51,356 registered voters in six townships recently. Only 2,772 responded, barely five percent. Not enough for accuracy. But when 70 percent of the five percent said they wanted Rte. 53, Mr. Churchill claimed that "when 70 percent of the people want something, that's a mandate." Seventy percent of what people? Who were those respondents?

I could speculate that they are probably land speculators, elected officials and some real estate people, but I might not be right. I don't believe that who responded to this poll is as important as who did not. Not enough responded to this poll to yield useable results.

Rte. 53 is a hot political issue. I could go on and on about what I learned in a recent meeting where members of the Citizens Transportation Coalition spoke. Think, however, about this one item. The Volo Bog/Illinois Dept. of Conservation Nature Area. Right now, the proposed path of Rte. 53 goes right through the middle of the bog.

This is a good time to visit the bog. Take Rte. 12 to Brandenburg Rd. and turn west. Follow Brandenburg until you reach the bog. Walk through the only quaking bog left in northern Lake County. It is surrounded by tamarack trees, the only conifers that lose their needles in the fall. (Continued on Next Page)

Stabilizing school budgets Politically Speaking

by VIRGINIA F. FREDERICK

Visitors to the State Capitol must be amazed at the throngs of people descending upon the legislature, each bearing their own message. This week, however, one message rang loud and clear above the others, education needs more money.

Rallies on the steps of the Capitol brought a simple message that can no longer be ignored. Repeatedly, we heard first-hand the cries to give education funding the attention it deserves. I'm proud to say that House Republicans have developed a means to do just that.

Under the recently released Priority One Plan, education would benefit from $191.5 million more than the Governor has proposed in his Fiscal Year 1990 budget request. The plan guarantees education 63 percent of net income tax receipts plus its current funding sources.

Commentary

In addition, Priority One adds predictability to local schools' budget planning.

Throughout our state, schools are in severe financial straits. Almost 200 schools are on the State Board of Education's financial "watch list." These schools would benefit from Priority One. The plan takes education, at all levels, out of the yearly tug-of-war for state dollars and ensures that schools can keep their doors open, while colleges and universities can help stop the exodus of faculty to higher-paying institutions.

Of the several education funding proposals before the legislature the Priority One Plan is the best. The state's top budget analysts have agreed the plan will work, and representatives from throughout the education community have endorsed it. In a nutshell, the plan creates a pool of money solely for education, adds stability to the funding process and leaves teacher retirement funding levels intact without changing the way we finance retirement.

Under Priority One, elementary and secondary schools in the 59th legislative district would receive $1.5 million more in General State Aid than in the current fiscal year. In subsequent years, local schools should receive an annual increase of about four percent, assuming merely moderate growth in the economy.

Illinois House Republicans understand that though choices may have to be made to ensure that education is properly funded, and we are committed to seeing that education truly is Priority One.

Editors note: Virginia Flesler Frederick represents the 59th Dist. in the Illinois General Assembly. She is a Republican. The 59th Dist. includes parts of Avon, Warren, Shields, West Deerfield and Deerfield Twp. and all of Libertyville Twp. She resides in Lake Forest where she formerly taught high school.

Many species of birds live here, along with frog, salamanders, pitcher plants, and other types of life.

Is losing this worth gaining one minute and seven seconds per hour (estimated) travel time? I won't even detail the over 2,800 acres of wetland which would be destroyed by Rte. 53, or the resulting flooding problems and salt poisoning of the surrounding areas. Just visit the Volo Bog. Then write or call Rep. Churchill and ask him who he represents.

Power running amuck

Editor:

As a resident of Lake Villa Twp. I am outraged by the court case of Robert Streicher, director of Lake County Building and Zoning, against Jim Semmerling, Lake Villa Hwy. Commissioner.

This is not simply a matter between township and county jurisdiction but a far more important concern of discrimination and abuse of governmental authority. Mr. Streicher can tell anyone he wants of the "impersonal" nature of this litigation but let's look at two important facts.

First, that Jim Semmerling has been the only township highway commissioner to ever receive this sort of "red tagging" and court action (by Mr. Streicher) to stop working on his own roads. The only township ever so affected amongst the hundreds in the state.

Secondly, that the "red tagging" started only days after Mr. Semmerling appeared before the county Building and Planning committee to condemn Mr. Streicher's poor performance in office.

I find it difficult to believe that after our County Board members investigate this matter fully they will allow Mr. Streicher to use his authority to rule as an "almighty monarch run amuck with power."

To further infuriate every law abiding citizen we watch as Mr. Streicher now has declined to sue his employer, Lake County, because the health department will not "bend the rules" for him. Reportedly, he is upset not because thousands of people have built homes according to the regulations set by the health department but because these same rules do not allow Mr. Streicher to build his own personal palace, a modest 5,700-square-foot, five-bedroom home.

Graham should resign

Editor:

One can well understand F.T. "Mike" Graham's passionate interest in open space now that the possibility of rather confined quarters may loom large in his future. There are several federal facilities with prison farms, and it may be that a return to the farm will be beneficial to all.

Various calls for resignation of persons opposing Mike's viewpoint have frequently been articulated by him in the past. One can only hope that Mike will be true to his beliefs, do the decent thing and resign from the county board so that he may spend full time cleaning up this affair. After all, how much confidence can the public have in a commissioner that is willing to pass out a job costing the taxpayers thousands of dollars annually for a vote on a minor matter before a municipality? Would you trust him with the county budget of $125 million a year? And what about a county board chairman who, knowing that Graham is a target of a federal investigation moving toward indictment, has the gall to appoint him to a water commission so that Graham can apply his infamous obstructionist tactics to frustrate the will of the people?

Yes, lots of us are in favor of open space. A good spot to start would be Messrs. Graham and Geary's seats on the County Board.

Paul E. Thompson
Libertyville

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Former Mayor Paul Neal of Libertyville has landed on his feet. Retired in the April election, he has been appointed the first executive director of the Central Lake County Joint Action Water Agency.

While mayor for eight years and village trustee before that he worked with this agency to bring Lake Michigan water to Libertyville and other central Lake County communities. He was the moving force behind the Central Lake County Water Committee that started the whole concept.

Neal has worked tirelessly on the program to start pumping water in a year or two. He even went to New York not too long ago to get a bond rating for the agency. Next job is to put a pumping station in Lake Bluff.

Robert Grever

"For years I have been doing all the work without getting paid. Now I will," he said of his $54,000 annual salary.

Newly-elected Lake Villa Twp. Sup. Sue Hanson and the Choice Party that swept into office in the April election are crying foul. They say retired Sup. Dorothy Thompson left them with a $30,000 deficit.

Thompson said there are valid reasons. First, township employees were given a five percent pay increase last year instead of the three percent she wanted. Then, there were sizeable increases in employee health insurance costs. Last, was the need to pay for the care and running of the beautiful township park, costs previously covered by federal revenue sharing, which has been eliminated.

"Township trustees and Hanson (as township clerk) made out last year's levy when I was in the hospital," Thompson said. "Somebody just wants me to take the blame."

Highway Commissioner James Semmerling, known for his ready opinion on everything, has the answer: "Thompson was trying to stick it to these people, and she did."

Things will never be the same at the Lake County Republican Federation office in Waukegan. Suzie (Margaret) Metzler is retiring. She is the veteran executive secretary, who has made party chairmen and GOP candidates look good all these years.

The federation's non-election year cocktail reception in September or October will be in her honor. The date and place is still to be picked.

She has been executive secretary of the Lake County Republican Federation and Lake County Central Committee for 26 years. During that time she worked with four county GOP chairmen—Robert Milton, W.J. Murphy, George Kangas and, presently, Robert Neal.

Suzi returned to work part time last week after being sidelined at her Gurnee home and in the hospital with a mild heart condition. That isn't the reason she's hanging up her GOP hat, though. She told party insiders several months ago she wants to take life easy. Her husband, Harvey, a Lake County probation officer, died in 1967.

All of the office personnel Suzi has groomed to someday succeed her have gone onto other challenges. That leaves the party with a big job to fill and no takers.

Voters may get confused in next year's Dist. 6 County Board race. First-term incumbents Bruce Hansen of Lake Zurich and John Reindl of rural Mundelein say they will run again.

Being encouraged to challenge them is another Hansen, Paul. The Wauconda attorney is the village's one-time police chief. He owns the local car wash, among other real estate holdings.

Reportedly paired with him is Ela Twp. Sup. Robert Grever. Political insiders say these two would make mincemeat out of the incumbents. Grever did exactly that to Hansen in April when the County Board member challenged Grever's re-election.

Paul Neal

Susan B. Anthony still stands as a role model for most women. An award in honor of the women's suffrage leader has been given to another leader—state Rep. Virginia Frederick (R-Lake Forest) of the 59th Dist.

It is from the Illinois Women's Political Caucus for her support of issues vital to women and sponsorship of the Equal Rights Amendment in the House.

Ralph Swank Jr. insists he will not run for the County Board in Dist. 5 next year. That is when F.T. "Mike" Graham and his running mate, Carol Calabrese, may ask voters to return them to office.

In April Swank unseated Graham from the township supervisor job he has held for 20 years. Friends and Lake County home builders want Swank to do it again next year. He says no. Business and family come first.

Lots of people are hoping he will change his mind with federal charges of influence peddling hanging over Graham's head. Graham admits he may have made a mistake, which he attributes to the power of his office. Graham has been humbled by an FBI investigation and a pending date with a federal grand jury on Thursday, May 25.

Calling all Democrats. Next meeting of the Democratic Central Committee will be Thursday, May 25, at the Caabriolet Restaurant, 1765 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville, starting at 7:30 p.m. Topic on tap is a review of last month's supposedly non-partisan municipal elections and "plans for the future."

College Lake County Foundation elects officers

The College of Lake County Foundation Board of Directors elected new officers at its May meeting.

Elected to three-year terms of officer were: as president, Ralph Edwards, vice president for personnel, Abbott Laboratories; as program operations vice president, Neil Everett, director of operations, Dearborn Chemical; as cultural affairs vice president, Barbara Richardson, Lake County coroner; as fund-raising vice president, Randy Miles, president, State Bank of Antioch; organization and membership vice president, John Freese, a partner with Clifton, Gunderson & Co.; as treasurer, Sybil Yastrow, superintendent of Lake County schools; and secretary, Robert Wright of Lincolnshire.

Charles Schulze, executive director of the foundation said that the organization's financial report shows that total foundation assets to date in fiscal year 1989 are $150,000, nearly double last year's figure. The figure includes all scholarships, endowments, special purpose and unrestricted funds. Schulze also reported that 59 new scholarships were created due to increased fund-raising efforts with events such as last fall's anniversary dinner-auction.

Board members contributed $3,550 in new money, according to Schulze, and their companies gave $16,000. Of that total, $11,000 was new money. Schulze said several solicitations are still outstanding and that a new management software package has been purchased to create standardized financial reporting and facilitate donor research.

The foundation, which has rewritten its bylaws to include up to 50 members, accepted the following new members for a total of 26: Charles Bartels, franchise owner, Manpower Temporary Services; Charles Blanchard, corporate vice president, Baxter Health Care; Beverly Hayes, director of compensation and benefits, International Minerals and Chemical Corp.; Thomas Schwartz, president and CEO, First Midwest Bank of Waukegan; and Robert Worobow, vice president human resources, Quill Corp.

Board appoints Daddano

Anthony Daddano, M.D., of Lake Forest has been appointed to a three-year term to the Lake County Board of Health by the Lake County Board.

Dr. Daddano is an allergist with an office in Waukegan. He has hospital appointments at Victory Memorial Hospital and St. Therese Hospital, Waukegan; Condell Memorial Hospital, Libertyville; Lake Forest Hospital; and Children's Memorial Hospital, Chicago. He previously served as president of the medical staff at St. Therese Hospital.

He is an associate professor of Clinical Pediatrics at the Univ. of Health Sciences/the Chicago Medical School, where he also received his medical degree.

Vernon Hills

The Vernon Hills office of Express Services, temporary and permanent personnel, was a first place production award recipient at the Oklahoma City-based company's annual convention. The office also received second and third-place awards for greatest increase in total temporary hours billed and dollars billed. "We're very honored to have received this recognition," said Marshall Claassen, owner of the office. "It's a particularly high distinction, considering we had to compete with the entire national company to win." Express Services has 124 offices in more than 30 states. Projected revenue for the '89 fiscal year is $170 million.

JMB Properties Urban Co. has confirmed that Carson Pirie Scott & Co. will open a fashion-oriented department store at Hawthorn Ctr. in Vernon Hills. Carsons will occupy a 107,000-square-foot, two-level store currently occupied by Lord & Taylor and will become the third anchor tenant of the 1.4 million-square-foot mall developed and operated by JMB. Maurice Fisher, president of the development company, said that the lease arrangement with Carsons was based on acquisition of the property that has housed the Lord & Taylor operation since September 1975.

Grayslake

Cathy Reilly, the agency's manager who has more than 12 years' experience in the travel industry, said business has really picked up since the open-house. In addition to making airline, cruise and tour reservations, Diamond Travel also offers reduced rate limo service through its subsidiary company, E-C Motor Coaches. Gem Travel Ctr. is owned by Carole Marovich, a Wildwood resident.

Island Lake

Floral Expressions, located at 125-5 E. State Rd. in Island Lake is celebrating its one-month anniversary this week and owners John and Diane Norris say the business is doing extremely well. Floral Expressions is quite unique. Inside the shop is a gazebo decorated for weddings. The Norrises plan to offer a wedding package for people to be married inside their store. Floral Expressions is the only store in Lake and McHenry counties to sell Eucalyptus trees. The trees come in many varieties and need no care. In fact, John said many people leave them in a cabin for months at a time and come back to a thriving plant and fresh air. Floral Expressions offers delivery service within a 50-mile radius of Island Lake.

Keeping it in the family

Melonnle and John Hartl and their daughters Kelsie, 2, (above) and Katie, 4 1/2 (not pictured) are celebrating the 60th anniversary of their family business, C.J. Smith Resort in Antioch. The boat rental and fishing supply store was started in 1929 by Melonnle's grandfather, Charles C. Smith and her grandmother, Elsie. Melonnle and John took over the business when her parents, Charles J. and Barbara, retired in 1985. Top Inset, Charles C. has quite a catch. ## C.J. Smith Resort: A legacy since '29

by BECKY JOHNS
Lakeland Newspapers

The year 1929 saw the end of the roaring twenties, when the stock market crashed unexpectedly. For most people it meant hard times. But for Charles C. Smith and his wife, Elsie, it was the year they started a legacy.

Smith and his wife—who were 36 and 31 years old respectively at the time—moved from Evanston to Antioch on what is now Grass Lake Rd. There, along the Spring Lake channels, they built their house and started a small fishing business, selling bait and renting boats. The business still exists today, 60 years later, as C.J. Smith's Resort.

"Grandpa loved fishing," recalls Melonnle Hartl, Smith's granddaughter. "It was a hobby. He was a landscaper, and she (Elsie) ran the resort."

The picture has changed a little since then, with the addition of a bait shop next to the original house, and some growth along the channel. But the docks—and the business—are still there, despite flood and drought.

Melonnle and husband John now run C.J. Smith's, 60 years after her grandfather's hobby turned into the family business. They still give the same "customer-oriented" service providing boats and bait for fishermen in Spring Lake.

"We want the customers to come back," says John. "We're a seasonal business. We make our living in only seven months out of a year. We want them to feel that they're getting a really good deal, and we want them to enjoy it."

"We can have people leaving here feeling that they've enjoyed themselves, that gives us the best feeling in the world," John said.

Business Profile

Names: Melonnle and John Hartl

Business: C.J. Smith Resort
Grass Lake Rd, Antioch

Philosophy: "We want to provide the best service and the best equipment that we can so that our customers can go out and have a really great day on the chain."—Melonnle Hartl

But it wasn't as simple for the Hartls as it may sound. Former employees of Baxter-Travenol in Round Lake, they lost their jobs when the division they worked in was acquired by a New Jersey corporation. Melonnle's parents, Charles J. and Barbara Smith, who took over the business after Charles C. and Elsie, decided to retire in 1985. The Hartls chose to keep the business in the family.

"We take care of our own destiny now," said John.

Charles J. and Barbara's addition of the bait shop, indoor bait tanks, and aluminum boats with motors helped C.J. Smith's take off in the 1960s.

"I remember when I was pretty young, you would hear about a recession; but we kept on, and always seemed to do okay," said Melonnle.

"Every year, something goes wrong," says John, pointing to a cabinet whose varnish was stripped several inches off the floor. "Three years ago in August we had 13 inches of water in here. It put us out of business for two months."

Last year's drought left them high and dry, with boats too hot to sit in and not enough worms for bait.

But business goes on. The Hartls—who still take pictures of people and their catches, just like Charles C. Smith, plan to publish a scrapbook to commemorate the 60th anniversary, which is around Memorial Day.

"We're really proud to let people know we've been around this long," said Melonnle.

As for keeping the resort in the family, Melonnle said, "We'll leave that up to our kids." Which means Katie, 4 1/2 years, and Kelsie, 2, will decide for themselves if they want to run their great-grandparents' business.

If alcohol

has taken your teen out of touch,
we're within reach.

A free, confidential
consultation is just a phone call away.

Often, it begins innocently. Experimenting with drugs. Beer parties after football games. It's no one's fault—but, somehow things have gotten out of hand and your teenager is out of touch.

The fact is, substance abuse is often only a symptom of a deeper emotional problem. Professionals at the Saint Therese Adolescent Treatment Center know this—and have developed the only program in the area where your son or daughter can receive help in overcoming a drug or alcohol problem while also receiving psychiatric treatment for the underlying emotional dilemma.

The program has been developed specifically for adolescents and their special problems—and is not an adult program that has simply been adapted for teens. This comprehensive program not only helps your son or daughter, but also provides the support your entire family may need to become united once again.

Deciding to get professional help is never easy. But, if you suspect your teen has a problem, call us today to set up a free, private consultation—or to simply ask questions. It may be the most important phone call you'll ever make.

Saint Therese Medical Center serves the communities of Northern Illinois and Southeastern Wisconsin with complete programs in adult and adolescent psychiatric services.

Lock in those good returns now

by ALAN NADOLNA

All economic indicators are beginning to point to a slow down. This should translate into a general decline in interest rates. Whether or not we experience a recession, as many have predicted, the general indicators point to slowing in such economic areas as housing, producer price increases and capital goods production.

It is virtually impossible instruments, this is a real opportunity for gain. We are in that kind of economic environment now, and this is an excellent time to lock in some handsome returns, available on a tax-free, tax-deferred or taxable basis.

The best opportunities in each category are tax free unit trusts, certificates of annuity and government securities.

Tax free unit trust, AAA rated (some insured) are percent. These certificates allow owners to defer taxes for as long or short a period as meets their needs.

Government securities have long represented the safest investment vehicle available. In today's economic climate, the short-one year to medium term-10 year securities offer excellent rates of return.

New unit trusts have been developed that use GNMA "midgets" shorter term mortgage obligations. These trusts will have a life of about seven years and currently are yielding nearly 10 percent. Government Security mutual funds will profit handsomely when interest rates drop. These funds can generate both a high current income and significant capital gains in a falling interest rate environment.

With every opportunity for gain there is some risk. The most significant risk in the investments cited is quality. It is imperative that investors use care in selecting specific investment vehicles. Investigation into the issuer and the seller of any investment is mandatory. This is a good time to lock in profitable yields. Just use prudent judgement in selecting specific investments.

Wealth. Your questions are invited by writing to This Way to Wealth in care of the Lakeland Newspapers, 30 W. Whitney St., Grayslake, IL. 60030 or to 2203B Lakeside Dr., Bannockburn, IL. 60015.

This way to wealth

to predict the point at which interest rates will top out and begin to turn down. Often, investors who decide to wait for the top of a cycle find themselves getting involved too late.

It is possible that interest rates will go still higher in the near term future. It is also possible that we are at the top of the current interest rate cycle. The real issue is not the absolute perfect time, but the opportunity for profitable return.

Common stocks have historically returned about nine percent per year over a 60-year period. If investors can realize an equivalent return in risk-free available at 6.4 percent for a short, five-year period. This is equivalent to a 10 percent return to an Illinois taxpayer in the maximum tax bracket. Longer term unit trusts are available at higher rates, but the premium for longer maturities is not worthwhile now. The five-year trust will generate an excellent return and not tie up funds for an unreasonable period of time. The unit trust offers many advantages over the individual tax-free bonds and mutual funds.

Certificates of annuity are tax deferred accumulation products. They are identical to certificates of deposit; however their interest is not taxed as long as the funds remain in the certificate. These relatively new products are superior to the former single premium deferred annuities, primarily due to the lack of surrender charges.

Certificates are available in one, three, and five-year durations. This allows for maximum flexibility in planning for eventual distribution. The one-year certificates from top rated carriers will yield 9.4 percent, the three-year nine percent, and five year 9.2

WHAT IT TAKES TO BE THE BEST — BY ONE OF THE BEST.

Recently, the recipient of the Illinois Academy of Family Practice's 4th Annual Physician of the Year Award, Richard H. Dolan, M.D., has observed tremendous growth in his community. And at his hospital — Condell Memorial.

"People come to Condell because they know what to expect. A sophisticated, modern facility. The most advanced technology. A caring, knowledgeable staff. After all, those are the very attributes that make Condell one of the best.

"And patients appreciate the care they receive — the personal touch — and leave with a good feeling.

"Our emphasis is on wellness. The outpatient facilities and programs at Condell, such as the Centre Club, are making major contributions toward a healthier community.

"Coming to Condell is one of the best choices I ever made. And one of the best you can make."

You'll love our healthy attitude.

North Lake Commons debuts

North Lake Commons, a new shopping center located at the intersection of Rtes. 12 and 22 in Lake Zurich, is scheduled to open in September, according to its owner, Lincoln Property Company.

The 120,000+ square-foot upscale center is anchored by a premier Dominick's food store and adjoins an existing K-Mart, creating a 200,000-square-foot retail complex. In addition to Dominick's, 26 other fine retail stores are planned. North Lake Commons is already 90 percent leased.

Other retailers committed to the project, which was designed by Gregory H. Jenkins Architects, include industry leaders Crown Books, Trak Auto and TCBY Yogurt. Eye Works of Barrington, Top Half Apparel, Class Acts Cards and Gifts, Record City (owned by former WCFL disk jockey Jim Stagg), a prestige hair salon, and a cleaners are also signed. State Bank of Lake Zurich plans a full-service facility, including drive-thru teller stations. On tap are two more major apparel stores and a restaurant. Leasing is expected to be at 100 percent by opening.

North Lake Commons'

retail shop space provides excellent visibility to main arteries and takes advantage of customer flow created by both Dominick's and K-Mart. Over 53,000 cars pass through its major intersection daily. A traffic signal, to be installed at the Rte. 12 entrance, will enable easy access.

The North Lake Commons Lake County location gives ready access to the approximately 150,000 people within a seven-mile radius, who have an average household income of $60,000 a year. Lake County has the seventh highest effective buying income in the U.S.

Americana classic set to music

The outstanding cast of 'The Human Comedy,' musical version of WW2 classic, affords unusual musical evening of entertainment at Candlelight Dinner Theatre on Harlem In Summit. Anyone who loved 'Our Town,' should appreciate this one.

'Comedy' tweeks heartstrings

by GLORIA DAVIS
Entertainment Editor

Candlelight Theatre's latest offering, the musical version of the WW2 movie, "The Human Comedy," affords its audiences an unusual night of well-done theatrical entertainment.

Although the dreary and depressing chronicle concerning a small town's reception of the notorious telegrams sent by the U. S. War Dept. concerning military deaths back in the 1940s seems unlikely musical comedy material, Candlelight's "Comedy" gets an A- for its presentation.

Critic's
Choice

The opera-like script (no speaking lines, everything is sung) could be considered a plus or a deterrent, but in either case, the cast gets an A+ for handling a difficult assignment with aplomb and alacrity.

The first part of the show in which each of the small town characters is established, moves somewhat slowly, but by the time the second act is just a few minutes old, the pace and enjoyment speed up.

Candlelight features some outstanding voices in this one, lead by vocal show-stoppers Stephen (Hi Ya kid!) Finch, as the Trainman and Felcia Caldwell as the Librarian.

Judith Thiergaard plays the strained widow with feeling and, before we looked in the program credits, we just knew Robert Alan Mason, the bike-riding Western Union boy, just had to have played Huck Finn somewhere. He "out Miceys" Rooney, who played the part in the original film, with his clean-cut Americana portrayal.

Richard Reardon, as the ill-fated son of Uncle Sam, is responsible for picking up a slightly lagging pace with his rousing rendition of "My Sister Bess."

Like "Our Town," this one has them all such as the cute little kid, well played by Brendan Hut, who according to the playbill, is a nine-year-old in his ninth year of acting.

The young and middle aged lovers, played by Reardon and Roberta Duchak and Linda Balgord and James Braet are enjoyably romantic.

This one can't miss, its got Mom, apple pie, kids, a lot of flag waving and yes, I do believe there was a dog, or maybe someone carried what looked like one onto the stage.

Schornick to conduct
last symphony concert

It will not only be the final concert given by the Waukegan Symphony Orchestra this season, but it will be Dr. Lynn Schornick's farewell concert as the orchestra's conductor.

The orchestra will conclude its season with a performance at 8 p.m. on Saturday, May 20, in the Genesee Theatre, 205 N. Genesee St., Waukegan. Benny Kim will be the featured violinist. Tickets are $7 for adults and $4 for seniors, students and military personnel.

The program will include "Symphony No. 1 in C Major" by Beethoven, "Four Sea Interludes" by Benjamin Britten and "Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D Major" by Brahms.

Kim, winner of the Young Concert Artists International Auditions in 1983, is one of the nation's most engaging new violinists, according to the Washington Post. "Kim's technique was dazzling, but his emotional depth and musical carriage are his real drawing cards," the Post went on to say, "... his is a style that touches the peak of romantic violin playing."

The orchestra's final concert is dedicated to George Swigart, concertmaster of the orchestra for nine years. Swigart passed away last June. Dr. Schornick said Swigart was the most dedicated teacher he ever knew.

"George was the most dedicated teacher it has ever been my pleasure to know," said Schornick. "His enthusiasm and striving for constant improvement in performances and in life were continual inspiration to all of us who knew him. We have lost a great man and a true friend."

Tickets can be purchased at the Jack Benny Center for the Arts in Bowen Park, at the Genesee Theatre or by calling (312)244-1660.

Adler hosts
Bovee, Heil

Fans of old-time music will delight when Bob Bovee and Gail Heil return to the David Adler Cultural Center for a concert at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 20.

Long-time Adler House favorites, Heil and Bovee and highly regarded throughout the midwest and west for their tasteful and sensitive approach to old-timey tunes and songs and their fine, close-harmony singing. Between them, they play fiddle, banjo, autoharp, harmonica and guitar, combining remarkable musicianship with a genuine feel for the spirit of the music.

Singer and instrumentalist Holly Williams, an old friend of Adler House, will open the show.

Stars of 'Darkness'

Bill Raymond, left, as Joe, and Stephen Lang as Lou, star in 'Speed of Darkness' at Chicago's Goodman Theatre. Lakeland's stage critic, Tom Witom, calls the play 'chilling' and full of 'strong performances' in his review below.

'Darkness' response sometimes chilling

by TOM WITOM

"The Speed of Darkness," the Steve Tisch play premiering through May 20 at the Goodman Theater, starts out almost as a situation comedy. It's dark side doesn't emerge until the second half.

Joe, played by Bill Raymond, is a successful south Dakota businessman. He started as a trash hauler and now operates a thriving construction company. He has just been nominated as "Man of the Year."

His wife Ann (Lee Guthrie) loves him, and his graduating high school daughter, Mary (Brigitte Bako) respects him. It's an idyllic situation, and no one wants it to change one iota.

But "Speed of Darkness" is caught up in the past, and Joe's dark history comes home to roost with the unexpected arrival of an old Vietnam buddy Lou (Stephen Lang), whose life he once saved.

Lou is now a bum (he prefers the term "urban homeless"), and his presence after a 20-year absence, recalls more than a child, or at least close relationship, that he never had.

In the end, the skeletons come trotting out of the experiences during the war and how he tried to get back at society for the harm they caused him. All in all, it's a sad but riveting story.

Critics Choice

few unpleasant memories for Joe.

Tisch explores with telling perception what happens when society uses—and abuses—people, and they eventually "mend crooked." The cast turns in a strong performance, especially Lang and Raymond. In at least two scenes, the sense of desperation is so great the response it creates is absolutely chilling.

The play is loaded with symbolism. For example, through most of the second act Mary totes around a makeshift baby, a school project to instill the experience of parenting. Lou sees the "baby" as the closet, one by one, as Joe divulges his personal

Mysterious Malta

by JIM WARREN, PRESIDENT NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Temples dating back to 5,000 years before the birth of Christ. Unexplainable "cart tracks" leading into the sea. Prehistoric cave-like tombs. Miles of catacombs from Roman times. Where is this fascinating land?

It's an island in the Mediterranean about 60 miles south of Sicily. Its called Malta.

You say you haven't heard of Malta? Ever heard of the Maltese falcon from the old Bogart movie? Then there's the Maltese cross which, for some reason, is popular among bikers. (The falcon was a token payment for the use of the island as a home for the knights of the Order of St. John, the cross was the symbol of the knights with its eight points representing the eight homelands of the Order.)

Students of the Bible will know that St. Paul speaks of his experiences after being shipwrecked on Malta. His preaching has caused Malta to remain a Catholic country to this day.

But does Malta have white sand beaches and sunny skies? Sure. In fact, it is a top vacation spot for the Europeans though still relatively unknown to most Americans.

However, it's not the beaches or the climate that attracted me to Malta. Instead, it's Malta's rich and colorful history which is everywhere on the island.

The government buildings in use today date back to the 14th Century. Life in walled cities a thousand years old is as it was in 900 A.D. For 35 cents, a Maltese family will let you tour some catacombs they discovered while digging a cistern under their house.

Due to its strategic location, Malta has been inhabited by many nationalities throughout history. Each has left some remembrance. My stay in Malta was more educational than Mrs. Toppings' history class at Steinmetz H.S. ever was!

A trip to Malta would be a worthwhile addition to any European vacation.

Coromandel Peninsula New Zealand microcosm

by MARY O'BRIEN

For visiting Americans just beginning to discover it, the Coromandel Peninsula, just a one-half drive from Auckland, New Zealand's capital, provides a microcosm of the country's history and her incredibly variable beauty.

It was here in 1769 on the shores of Mercury Bay that Captain Cook took possession of New Zealand's North Island for England.

Then and in more ancient times, Maori tribesmen roamed the hills and built forts whose remnants are still visible. In fact, the Maoris still consider the land around Mt. Mochau to be "tabu," a sacred place.

New Zealand gold was first discovered in the Coromandel in 1851 and gold fever raged for about 100 years. While the gold rush was on, the timber industry also thrived and whole forests of ancient kauri trees whose tall, straight trunks made ideal ships' masts, were felled. Many of these giant trees—some up to 2,500 years old—still survive, apt sentinels in a land blessed by unusual beauty.

Walking or "trekking" is a favorite New Zealand sport and there are well-marked trails throughout the Coromandel. In less than five minutes one can walk from the road into another world—into the bush and over a hill, with tantalizing glimpses of the sea.

Then scrambling down a cliff and feeling like Robinson Crusoe, one emerges on a beach like Cathedral Cove. Surely this place is also "tabu," holy ground, where wind, water and volcanic eruptions have carved caves and deposited rocky monoliths in the sea.

If trekking is not one's sport, they can ride a horse, go white water rafting, prospecting for gemstones, deep sea fishing or trout fishing in dozens of rivers or shopping for Coromandel pottery at studios which dot the area.

Visitors can fly, drive or take a bus to the peninsula. Many people rent cars or campers and there are motels, lodges, bed and breakfasts, and excellent camping facilities.

Perfect for 'trekking'

In less than five minutes, visitors to New Zealand can go 'trekking' and by scrambling down a cliff come upon beautiful sights like the many scenic coves leading to the ocean.

Atmosphere

Victorian decor inside and patio overlooking lake, create perfect dining atmosphere at R.J.'s Eatery, Lindenhurst.

Something's always new on R. J.'s Eatery menu

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Customers of R. J.'s Eatery in Lindenhurst, have gotten used to the fact that the menu at R. J.'s never grows stale, with something new added every so often to pique their epicurean curiosity.

Located on Grand Ave, near the Linden Plaza, the place where the first R. J.'s was located back in the early 1980s, R. J.'s is one of the area's most popular dining places.

The Victorian decor, complete with colorful reproductions of hot air balloons, lends to R. J.'s family atmosphere, a commodity insisted upon by R. J.'s owner Robin Brankey and manager Chris DeBello. Dining on the outdoor patio overlooking the lake is a favorite of customers during the warm weather.

DeBello comes to Lindenhurst from Maravelas in Fox Lake.

If one hasn't visited R. J.'s lately, they will be pleased to find some new dinner entrees on the menu, a list which includes the popular seafood, orange roughy.

There are other new items under the sandwich list, the least of which is the Philly steak sandwich.

Of course the new pan pizza that has been added to R. J.'s long pizza line has been a real crowd pleaser.

Taking the entire family to eat at R. J.'s is a popular practice, not only with local residents, but many drive from deeper in Lake County, having experienced R. J.'s culinary delights.

Though the menu is full of down right good American eating, such as the hearty R. J. burger, the steamy succulent pizza, or a refreshing taco salad topped with olives and sour cream, there is a very long list of Italian dinner entrees offered, not the least of which is the delicious fettuccine alfredo and the golden cheese ravioli. Something always looks and smells good enough to eat, at R. J.'s.

Telling it like it is

One person who doesn't waste time or words is North Barrington Village Trustee Norma Behrend, left. She shakes finger at Dennis Abbott, member of Lake Zurich Rural Fire Protection Dist., for what she perceives to be one of board's problems. These range from purchase of Ela Twp. Abbott politely listens at this point.

Lakeland Newspapers Lake County At A Glance

Eagle Creek

LAKE VILLA—Frank Grenus, a resident of the Village of Lake Villa and owner of a 110-acre farm at the junction of Monaville and Cedar Lake Rds., has expressed his deep concern to the Village Mayor Joyce Frayer and to the Board of Trustees over the problems Eagle Creek is causing on his property. The creek was re-directed after a drainage ditch was dug by the Village to replace a clay drainage tile just south of Lake Villa's sewage treatment plant. Now Eagle Creek enters onto Grenus' land in two locations which are only a few yards apart. It spreads out as it travels west and south along what used to be the best part of his land. The land is now swamp-like and completely saturated and the creek no longer runs in a straight line. Grenus is also worried about affluent in the water and the 18 inches of sediment in the creek which makes it way into Long Lake on the Chain.

Montessori planned

LINDENHURST—The Village of Lindenhurst Board of Trustees is scheduled to okay the final architectural plans for a Montessori school to be built in Waterford Commons, a development at the corners of Grass Lake and Beck Rds. If plans are approved, the school should be built by Aug. 15 to accommodate the 80 students who are already enrolled.

Recycling meeting

GRAYSLAKE—Grayslake residents will be able to learn the details of the village's upcoming curbside recycling program during a meeting at Grayslake Community High School. Representatives of Waste Management of Lake County, Grayslake's contractor, will be on hand for the 7:30 p.m. meeting at the GCHS arena. Mayor Marv Smith and other village officials are expected to attend.

Golf Center OK

GURNEE—Gurnee Village Board members have given the nod for a Gurnee Golf Center to be built off Greenleaf St. Board members granted a special use permit to operate the golf center.

Illegal fill: Corp

FOX LAKE—Federal and county authorities are saying that illegal filling has occurred at an Ingleside wetland area and a cease and desist order may be forthcoming. Mike Flynn, an engineer with the U.S. Army Corp of Engineers, said a site investigation of the wetland area at 600 Rte. 59, Ingleside, has revealed a violation there of the U.S. Clean Water Act. Jim Thillen, owner of the property which surrounds Fleet Service had been given a Corp permit for filling. That permit, said Flynn, was issued in 1982 and expired two years later. It authorized the use of 3,500 cubic yards of clean fill for the purpose of constructing a baseball field on the wetlands. No baseball field was ever built, he noted.

Speeding gripes

WAUCONDA—Parts of the Lake Ridge subdivision in Wauconda have become a "short-cut speedway" presenting a potentially dangerous situation for area children, according to subdivision residents. Those same residents have banned together to call for lower speed limits and more stop signs within their subdivision. "The well-paved Lotus and High Streets have become an access short-cut speedway to and from Liberty (Rte. 176) and Old Rand Road...At times motorists go through the subdivision with speeds approaching 40 miles an hour," reads a petition to the village board. The petition, signed by 60 subdivision residents, also claims that motorists ignore the two stop signs at Lotus/Kimball and High/Alvina.

Walk-A-Thon

ANTIOCH—The Antioch Rotary Club is sponsoring a Rotary Walk-A-Thon to start at 1 p.m. at Williams Park on Sunday, May 21. This will be a 10K-6.2 mile walk. There will be prizes, raffle prizes, refreshments served and various drawings to add to the fun.

$10,000 for study

FT. SHERIDAN—Plans will begin shortly about what to do with this 100-year-old military installation when it closes by the spring of 1994. A $10,000 state grant will be used to develop land use plans for the installation's 700 acres, historic structures, military cemetery and other facilities in a key location on Lake Michigan. This and 85 other military facilities nationwide will close by Congressional order between now and 1994. State Attorney Gen. Neil Hartigan has filed a federal lawsuit to prevent the closing of the fort and Chanute Air Force Base downstate.

Trustee in trouble

LAKE ZURICH—Legal steps are being taken to remove Trustee Philip Light from the office to which he was elected in April because his residence is now Sarasota, Fla. After taking the oath of office Light attended an initial board meeting, but walked out when his residency was questioned. Both Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman and Illinois Atty. Gen. Neil Hartigan have been asked to take legal steps to declare Light's position vacant. It could take 6-8 weeks before the matter is resolved.

Residents meet to discuss pros, cons of Rte. 53 extension

A public meeting to air pros and cons of the proposed Rte. 53 expressway extension through Lake County to Rte. 120 will be held on Wednesday, May 24 at 8 p.m. in the Legion Hall building, 42 S. Seymour, Grayslake.

The meeting is being sponsored jointly by the Arbor Vista Homeowners Assn. (AVA), Homeowner of Wildwood (HOW), and Grayslake Residents Assn. to Save Open Space (GRASS).

To be moderated by Melinda Willen of Grayslake, the meeting will begin with scheduled speakers who support the oppose the new highway. Following the brief opening remarks, audience participation will be invited.

Views favoring the road will be expressed by a representative of the Chicago Area Transportation Study (CATS) which, in association with the Northeastern Illinois Planning Comm. (NIPC), has included the Rte. 53 expressway extension into Lake County in its controversial 2010 Plan for the future of the Chicago metropolitan area's road and public transportation system.

Opposing arguments will be offered by members of the Citizens Transportation Coalition (CTC), a county-wide organization of residents property owners, business people, public officials, groups, and others who are not convinced that the highway would favorably affect the quality of life in Lake County.

Alaska oil spill puts Skinner in spotlight

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

Alaska's vast oil spill equates to about one cup of gasoline for every car on the road today. But it is not why prices at the service station have risen so rapidly the past two months.

Blame that on the upcoming summer driving season, tougher refining standards to reduce pollutants and national events in other oil-producing areas says Samuel Skinner. The Lake Forest resident re-

6-c¢ gas hike needed

Illinois needs a six-cents per gallon increase in the gasoline tax, says Samuel Skinner, secretary of the U.S. Transportation Dept. The increase has been proposed by Gov. Jim Thompson. The current state tax is 13 cents per gallon. "We need more money to improve the infrastructure of this state and nation," he said. "Our highways old, deteriorating and unless something is done there could be a situation like New York where bridges nearly crumble under traffic."

turned home last week wearing his newest hat—secretary of the U.S. Dept. of Transportation.

A 10-year friend of President George Bush, he was plucked from the chairmanship of the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) to head an agency with 110,000 people and $28-million budget.

Events of his first 100 days in office have thrust Skinner into the national spotlight. First it was a terrorist bomb that exploded on PanAm 103 over Scotland. (He predicts the bombers will be identified soon.) Then came the Eastern Airlines strike. ("Government should not solve the problems of business.") Now, it is the 10-million gallon oil spill that has coated 300 miles of Alaska wilderness coastline.

"Exxon is doing all that possibly can be done given the magnitude of the problem," Skinner told 700 persons attending the annual Lake County Republican Federation dinner on May 12. Held at the Holiday Inn-Mundelein, it was a record-setting crowd.

Exxon has already spend $100 million and is prepared to double or triple that. "Our national oil policy is threatened," Skinner said of criticism about what has happened in Alaska. He noted 25 percent of America's oil supply comes through the Alaskan port of Valdez. If environmentalists and critics succeed in tightening controls on the domestic oil industry the nation will be forced to go elsewhere, leading to a possible repeat of 1974 and 1975 when the Oil Producing Exporting Countries (OPEC) forced dramatic price increases and spot shortages.

Exxon has 400 ships under contract to carry huge hot water pumps and 5,000 people working up to 16 hours a day to clean the massive spill—all by hand. They earn up to $16 per hour, $1,000 per week. These people wash rocks with high pressure hot water, sometimes two and three times. Marriott Corp. is the caterer for this vast armada 60 miles from the nearest town in Port William Sound. The logistics of feeding, housing and coordinating the work force is almost mind-boggling, the transportation secretary said. One day last week while he was there Exxon flew in 100,000 pairs of socks for those chilled by Alaskan temperatures in the high 40s to mid 50s during the day and low 30s at night.

Skinner takes issue with Alaskan officials who say Exxon has done too little, too late. Given the circumstances, climate and available technology, he staunchly defends Exxon. He admits, however, the oil industry, itself, failed miserably in meeting this disaster head on. "On a scale of 1 to 10, it is a 0," he said of preparedness and response in the hours following the March 24 grounding of a tanker captained by Joseph Hazelwood. The good thing is that 55 million gallons remained on the tanker.

"It is beyond your wildest imagination," Skinner said of the jelly-like crude oil that coats the shoreline, the water itself and kills sea and wildlife. The colder temperatures of Alaska make the oil like heavy molasses. "It is a national disaster impossible to describe."

Exxon has promised to clean up the oil spill by mid-September when colder weather returns. "If the job isn't finished this year, work will resume next spring," Skinner said.

Skinner travels to Alaska about once a month to monitor the oil spill as Bush's personal representative. "When I return I report directly to the president," Skinner said. "The president is extremely concerned." Skinner calls Alaska a "big, beautiful, vast, desolate state."

In spotlight

U.S. Transportation Dept. Sec. Samuel Skinner (left) was main speaker at May 12 Lake County Republican Federation Dinner. Spotlight has focused on Skinner during his first 100 days in office, since his agency has investigated bombing of Pam Am Flight 103 over Scotland, Eastern Airlines employee strike and 10-million-gallon oil spill in Alaska. Retiring secretary of the Lake Co. Republican Federation Suzie Metzler (above) is congratulated by Pres. David Amory, after Metzler is given standing ovation for her 26 years of service.

Windom B. 'Bud' Parker

born December 19, 1918 in Pine Level, Alabama, passed away May 2, 1989 at the Methodist Hospital in Arcadia, California.

Mr. Parker served his country in the United States Army during World War II, reaching the rank of Master Sergeant. He was stationed in the Southwest Pacific and was actively engaged in the invasion of the Philippines.

He met and married Orva Ann Berkley in Orlando, Florida in 1950. They moved to California in 1953 where they founded "California Fresh Pak" in San Gabriel the following year. They moved the business to Monrovia, California in 1957. In 1971, Mr. Parker designed and built a citrus processing plant in Indio, California, which became an integral part of California Fresh Pak.

The entire operation was sold to the Borden Company in 1979, after which the Parkers became actively involved in the business of thoroughbred horse racing. Together they formed the "Budann Stable" and shortly thereafter moved their stable to Bradbury, California.

He is survived by his wife, Orva Ann Parker, and his sister, Vivian Pack, who resides in Melbourne, Florida.

Services will be held at Oakdale Memorial Park in Glendora at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 6, 1989. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

CASTER

Say goodbye to traditional design ideas with the Caster. The two features most unique to this truly contemporary home are its central atrium, and the separate, yet attached, fully-equipped guest quarters.

Four large skylights, one on each side of the high vaulted atrium, make this bright area the natural focal point of the home. Large potted trees and other plants will love the light in what amounts to a covered central courtyard, as will family and friends.

No room in the main portion of the Caster is cut off from this rich light. The kitchen's eating bar - over eight feet of it - stretches along its right side, while the living/dining room area is separated from the atrium by nothing more than a lowered ceiling.

Doors from the master suite, and a second bedroom open into the area. Even more unusual, the occupants of both sleeping quarters can also enjoy the greenery through inward facing windows.

Kitchen counter space is so generous that some families might wish to eliminate some in favor of enlarging the living/dining room area. A full bath near the entryway serves the main living area and built-in utilities are also centrally located. The master suite has an oversized shower and large walk-in closet.

Just inside the airlock entry, a door to the right opens into a set of rooms equipped for fully independent living. This is ideal for an older parent, grown child, or for use as a rental.

The small kitchen has a sink, refrigerator, a range in a work island, and even a dishwasher. Bay windows form a natural eating nook, leaving plenty room for a couch and easy chairs. A bedroom, private bath, and several storage closets make the area totally livable.

Some families might prefer eliminating the bedroom wall altogether and using the entire area as one large family room.

For a study plan of the CASTER (208-33), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Words, conversation and meetings can be productive and stimulating.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Seclusion is one way to help sort matters. You feel hassled, overburdened, and you need to rearrange your priorities in order to meet all goals.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Stay on the firing line, and don't pass the buck. Slow down, verbalize your feelings calmly, and stay close to those who need your constant affection.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) You have a lot going for you, but your talents need more focus. Stick with what you do well until you master what is new and confusing.

Cancer (June 22 to Jul. 21) Fear of change is a concern. You may feel that your dreams for the future are unattainable.
The mood will change shortly if you remain persistent.

Leo (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Negative energy can destroy financial projects. Pessimism is not your style. Be confident that everything will turn out most favorably, and it will.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Many of your ideas are wasted for lack of follow-up, and this is getting you nowhere - fast. Choices must be made on how to divide your time.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You see the handwriting on the wall and must make career choices. Pass up transient affairs in exchange for concrete action and long-term gain.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Gear up for a busy week ahead.
Be diplomatic, and avoid insisting on getting your own way.
Time and patience will get you where you need to be.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Resolve a relationship problem with tact. Householders have scattered interests that are difficult to organize, so don't push matters.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Focus on color, music and harmony. You may find yourself in a dreamy mood. Accept the rewards of past efforts like a seasoned pro.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Avoid a work overload and possible burnout. Your personality features confidence, an improved attitude, and a dogged determination to win.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Things are on the mend after an irritating situation subsides. Look your best when working with VIP's who have power over your future.

Furlan's sets tourneys

Dug Out Park in Trevor, Wis. has set the dates for more spring tournaments.

On May 20 and 21 there will be a men's 16 inch tournament for teams with class "B" ratings and below. This is a double elimination tourney with an entry fee of $75. On the same weekend a co-ed volleyball tournament will be held.

On May 27 and 28 is the Memorial 12 inch tournament for men's non-classic teams. Entry fee is $80. There will be trophies and traveling expenses awarded for the tournaments.

The "Spring Fling" championship was won by Hiller & Hamm-Budweiser. The team outscored its opponents 62-21 for four games. The team is co-sponsored by TPS Louisville slugger bats. In 1986 the team captured the United States Softball Assn. Class 'B' national title.

For more information, call tournament director Tom Furlan at (312) 395-5788 or (414) 862-9936.

Frecking to ISU

Warren Twp. High School wrestling standout Mike Frecking will be attending Illinois State University next fall on a full scholarship.

Frecking was runnerup in the state finals at 152 pounds in the Class AA tournament and won 38 straight matches before the championship bout. He was named the most valuable wrestler at the Lake County tournament as a senior. "These days, most college wrestlers start as early as the first or second grade, so we think Mike has a lot of potential," ISU Coach George Girardi said.

Frecking is expected to wrestle at 152 pounds for the Redbirds.

He joins Grayslake basketball and football player Timm West as athletes who have announced their college choices for the 1989-90 school year. West will attend Knox.

State champs

Mundelein team members and school officials celebrated after receiving state championship trophy. Mustangs won school's first-ever title with 157.65 points at state finals at

First crown for MHS

Seniors Dortch, Picchietti lead Mundelein to state championship

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

The signs will soon be erected, probably at the major intersections in Mundelein.

"Mundelein, Home of the 1989 State Boys Gymnastics Champions", the signs will probably state. Casual motorists may pause and stare at the signs, which should be gray, white and maroon, if the state allows.

"Mundelein, State Champs?" the tourists will say.

Yes, Mundelein did capture its first-ever state championship when the Mustangs gymnastics team scored 157.65 points in the state finals at Forest View High School in Arlington Heights Saturday.

Mundelein had locked up the team title going into the final round, so the race was for second place. Rolling Meadows edged Addison Trail 152.4 - 152.3 for the second-place honors.

According to Mundelein Coach Doug Foerch, patience paid off for the state's best gymnasts.

"We wish we could have had the state meet in the middle of the season. But you have to wait and be patient. I wanted to finish this season off in a right manner," Foerch said.

The Mustangs were led by the gymnasts who had been steady performers throughout their four years at Mundelein. T. J. Dortch won the all-around as well as the parallel bars and tied for second on the floor exercise.

Senior Rich Picchietti won the top medal on the still rings with a 9.4 and Jeff Turnbull finished in a tie for fifth place.

"He had a great routine. He has been using that for the last two months with the exception of an original loop," Foerch said.

Picchietti said his feeling after winning the title was one of relief.

"I just had a more positive calm attitude coming in to this year," he said.

For Foerch, a former outstanding gymnast at Northern Illinois University, the state title is not only a dream come true but an early dream come true. He is in his fourth year at the helm in Mundelein, and had a five-year plan for success.

"I'm very happy for the kids. It's thrilling. It took a lot of hard work and dedication. Those were the two keys," he said just before the Mustangs received their trophy.

Foerch said the Mustangs, who finished seventh in the state last year, needed to improve on the pommel horse in order to make the six-place improvement.

Although the Mustangs lost only one dual match this season and several of the matches were by wide margins, the team was not without its problems. Several key Mustangs were injured and could not practice just before Mundelein's own Wayne Whitmore Invitational.

Mundelein received strong performances from Turnbull, who finished ninth on the all-around.

Glenbard East topped Libertyville for fourth place by less than two points, 151.7 - 150.25.

Leading the way for Libertyville was Matt Jackson, who was second behind Dortch in the all-around.

"I did not think it could end this good," Mundelein assistant coach John Meyer said as the Mustangs proudly held their first-place trophy.

Meyer, who has been at Mundelein for eight years, said the state champions are aided by a technique Foerch uses in practices.

"We do what we call 'pressure sense'. The music stops and everyone in the gym is quiet as someone does their routine. It helps a lot," Meyer said.

Meyer, a gymnast at San Jose State and a Conant High graduate, perhaps summed up the moment best.

"It will take a while to sink in," he said.

Maybe it will sink in when Meyer and the Mustangs drive around Mundelein this summer and see those signs.

CLC planning workshops

College of Lake County is offering a coaching workshop on the 'Philosophy of Coaching' in June.

The workshop, part of the college's American Coaching Effectiveness Program, will be held June 17 and 24 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the CLC Physical Education Center.

The workshop deals with: coaching philosophy, sport pedagogy and sports medicine. The workshop will be presented by ACEP certified instructor Candace Brasile.

ACEP participants should bring an ACEP coaches study guide and the book 'Coaching Young Athletes'. Both books are available at the CLC bookstore.

The fee is $10.

There will also be a one-day ACEP workshop on coaching football June 24. It will be presented by Curtis Gentry, former Chicago Bear and now CLC athletic director. Fee for day includes lunch.

For more information, call the CLC Adult Continuing Education & Extension Services at (312) 223-3616.

CLC teams capture loop all-sports championship

The banners hang at the north end of the College of Lake County gymnasium.

There are many of them, claiming College of Lake County as the all-sports champion of the Skyway Conference. The only problem is the last banner has a 1985-86 year inscribed on it.

That will all be taken care of thanks to stellar performances in several sports during the 1988-89 school year. CLC ended Oakton's two-year all-champion reign by garnering 59.5 total points. According to Athletic Dir. Curtis Gentry, no other Skyway school came close.

CLC toasted the accomplishments of its athletes at a spring sports banquet held at the Grayslake school. Spring sports were highlighted by a softball championship, a tennis player qualifying for nationals and a second-place finish by the baseball team.

Softball mentor Sue Garcia, in her third year, gained coach-of-the-year honors in the Skyway CLC, 21-25 overall, was 9-3 in league play. Garcia said the turning point was a second-place finish at the Marquette Classic.

"We played pretty good ball from there on," she said.

Individual honors included Carla Davis and Kathleen Quilty being named all-conference. Quilty, who threw a no-hitter this year, made second team all region IV. Davis hit .416.

Debbie Boness, who hit .310 and had 181 putouts, and Jill Garross were selected for the region IV all-star team.

As for next year, Davis returns as well as Warren graduate Teri Huntington and Grayslake product Julie Tortorici.

Also on the team were Lynn Mack, Sue Nauman, Valerie Seger and Sue Habel.

For Rich Fiocchi, playing number one singles does not mean his job is done when the match is complete.

"One of the greatest ingredients Rich possesses is his ability to work with the team," CLC Coach Lance Lavery said.

Lavery, in his 11th year of heading the CLC tennis program, has seen all types of No. 1 singles players. Some consider themselves above the crowd, in the elite of the tennis world.

"After his matches, he would always stay and encourage the others," Lavery said.

Fiocchi, a freshman from Lake Forest, qualified for the national junior college tournament by winning the title at the Rock Valley sectional.

"I'm basically a baseline player. I come in (to the net) when I can," Fiocchi said.

Fiocchi said Lake Forest High taught him a lesson which helped him at CLC. "Lake Forest taught me how to play tennis as a team sport," he said.

Lavery said Fiocchi's chances are good for a place in the national meet at Tyler, Texas.

"Rich was extended at times this year," Lavery said of the most valuable player in Region IV.

Fiocchi said his chances in nationals are helped by the fact that the NJCAA, which governs junior college sports, has divided up the national meet into two categories: those schools which grant scholarships and those who did not.

Steve Quigley, last year's No. 1 singles player, was second in the Skyway at No. 2. Dennis Dressel was third at No. 4 singles.

"He beat the players he lost to last year," Lavery said of Quigley.

Other team members were: first-year player Jeff Sassorossi, Jason Becker, Jeff Carson and Greg Smith.

"We had a good year," CLC baseball Coach Gene Hanson said.

The Lancers finished second to Oakton in the Skyway Conference with an 11-3 record, 34-17 overall.

Hanson praised the efforts of assistant coach Rob Carmichael.

Roy Salinas was named the team's most valuable player. Salinas, whom Hanson said has a good chance to play baseball for a four-year university next year, had a .419 batting average. He clubbed 12 home runs of the team's 38, led with 61 runs batted in and 128 total bases. As a pitcher, he was 7-1 with a 3.0 earned run average.

For his two-year CLC career, Salinas batted .450, had 131 RBIs, 25 home runs and 26 triples. Defensively, he and 322 putouts and just 12 errors.

Close behind Salinas in the hitting department this year was Dave Otto. Otto hit .412 in 63 at bats and had 11 stolen bases.

Steve Hall, who hit .346 and is another four-year college prospect, was named captain along with pitching ace Mark Ledinsky, who had an ERA under 1.0.

Chad Eddy, who hit .282 was given the hustler award. Hall and Tim Unroe, who had an eight-RBI game, were second-team all conference along with pitcher Bruce Wimer.

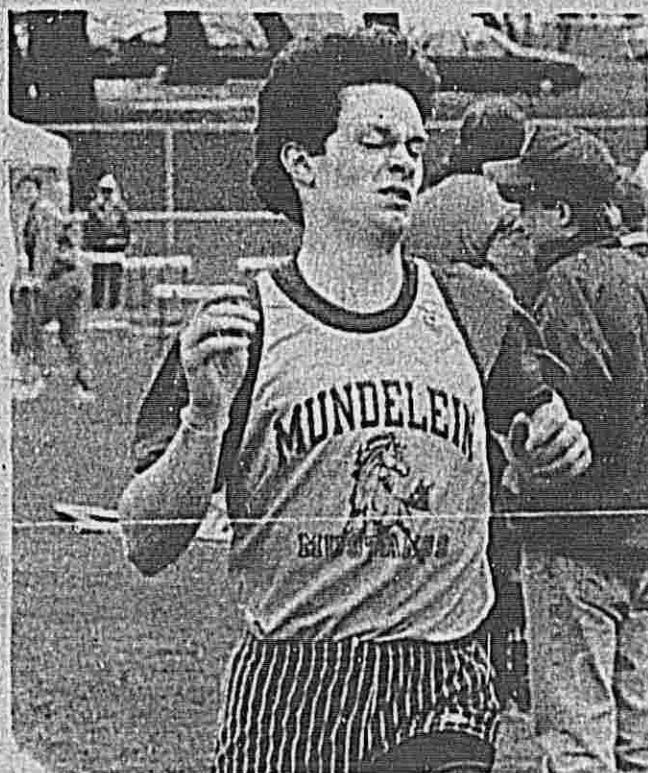

In team statistics, CLC batted .324, had a fielding percentage of .940, and a team ERA of 4.42.

Unroe, a Round Lake product who batted .333, will lead a "good group of freshman coming back next year," Hanson said. Unroe also had 20 stolen bases to lead the team.

Also contributing were: David Anderson, John Becker, Martin Butler, Jeff Betterman, John Dahn, William Demo, Brad Dodge, Greg Green, Matt Martorano, Chis Nelligan, Carl Poedike, Robert Ruley and Tim Summers.

And who knows, maybe this time next year Gentry might have to find room for another blue and white banner.

Splitt twins lead Carmel to baseball victories

Chuck Gandolfi is the second Carmel varsity baseball coach to confront the dilemma.

It's a nice dilemma, one that any baseball coach in the county would probably desire.

How do you tell Ricky and Randy Splitt apart?

"Usually I just yell, Ricky Splitt or Randy Splitt," Gandolfi said.

"Most people at school can just tell," Randy said.

Gandolfi is in his rookie season with the Corsairs and the twin brother combination is one of the major reasons the Corsairs have risen to the elite of the baseball teams in the Chicago area. The Corsairs won 26 straight game before losing to Joliet Catholic 7-6 in the second game of a Saturday doubleheader.

"They're very similar. They're both giving us quickness and speed," Gandolfi said.

Ricky, No. 14 bats leadoff and Randy, No. 17, bats fifth for the Corsairs. The duo batted one-two last season when Carmel won its first regional title ever.

"For the team, the goal is to get back to sectionals and win the conference," Ricky said.

Both seniors, there is a possibility that the duo may challenge a college coach in trying to tell them apart, although nothing is finalized.

Randy said the Corsairs learned to play together as a team last year.

This spring, a new Splitt has been added to the puzzle. Chris Splitt, a reserve infielder, is also on the squad, marking the second time in the Splitts baseball careers that the three have been on the same team.

"We're looking forward to him playing for us next year," Gandolfi said of the junior.

Although the threesome may be best known for their baseball exploits, Ricky and Randy and their younger brother have been known to mix it up in a spirited game of pickup basketball near their Long Grove home.

Three's company

Sequoits pace qualifiers for state track meet

Antioch's girls track and field team will lead this year's contingent of state qualifiers at this weekend's state finals at Eastern Illinois University.

The Sequoits will be represented in five events at the state meet and Coach Syd Kolcke is optimistic about the team's chances.

"They're going into the meet with a real positive attitude," Kolcke said.

Antioch was the top area finisher at Cary-Grove, ending in third place with 24 points, topping McHenry's 20. Barrington, as expected, won the team title with 64.5 points and Elgin Larkin was second with 35.

Grayslake's Chris Lupori in the high jump, Lake Zurich's Jen Sedlack in the discus and Alicia Blanks in the 200 yard dash. Grant's Cindy Edwards qualified in the 800 meter run.

"We hope she will break the school record," Grayslake Coach Kathy Englund said of Lupori.

Johnsburg followed a Northwest Suburban Conference championship the week before with Jenny Huemann qualifying for the state meet in the 100 yard dash. Her time was 12.8, just shy of Kelly Ellet of Elgin, who had a 12.7.

Lake Zurich tied Elgin with 15 points for seventh place and Johnsburg tied Dundee-Crown for 10th with 10 points.

Antioch was led in the qualifying efforts by the medley relay team and four individual events.

The 800 meter medley relay team, which has been had been running as a team the entire year except for one meet, qualified with a 1:53.8. The group includes a mix of experience with sophomores Denna Olenick and Teri Farnsworth joined by senior Kelly Doyle and junior Michelle Hanson.

Doyle also will be making the trip to Charleston in the 100 intermediate hurdles. She had close to her best time of the season with a 16.3.

Hanson will compete in both the 800 and 1,600 meter runs.

Distance specialist Liz Waters made the meet in finishing fifth with a 12:14.3.

Others to qualify out of the Cary meet included

•MEDICARE ASSIGNMENT ACCEPTED
•FREE TRANSPORTATION

Lake Zurich defends NWSC track championship

In a conference meet featuring hundreds of athletes and dozens of points, a letter here and a point there can't make much difference, right?

Wrong. At Friday's Northwest Suburban Conference track and field meet, an incorrect entry from the lineup card to the master team scoring sheet proved a nightmare for Grayslake Community High School officials.

What happened was this: Lake Zurich, Marengo and Round Lake were the top three teams in the meet. Round Lake was originally announced the winner with 105 points to Marengo's 104. The Panthers celebrated, were given the title and took their lap around the track. The Bears, who finished third in the meet with 85 points, also took a lap around the Grayslake track, for they were a perfect 7-0 in duals.

But as the sunset over the Grayslake field, and Round Lake and Lake Zurich buses had already departed, Marengo coach Ed Reeves noticed an error. A Marengo athlete, Paul Otto, was entered as a Marian Central (MC) not M or Ma. He finished sixth place in the 400 meter dash, and the one point was enough to throw the final tally into a tither. The overall NWSC champion is based on a combination of dual meet results and the conference meet. Round Lake and Marengo were tied for second place with 23 total points to Lake Zurich's 24.

"All the kids were outstanding," Round Lake Coach Kevin Dempsey said. The Panthers, who shouted the team slogan of 'Blue Thunder' as they took their victory lap, received a one-two finish in the 3,200 meter run from Ray Nofsinger, who topped teammate Pat Mack.

John Reballato won the 100-yard dash in 11.2, and the 200 yard dash as well.

"I expected the conference meet would be close because of the dual meets. We saved our best for last," Dempsey said.

Dempsey had praise for assistants Rob Rommel and Lance White. It was White who had the honor of carrying the trophy around the track.

The Bears had several third and fourth place finishes, including a third-place finish from the 3,200 meter relay team. Don Searing was third in the long jump.

Following Lake Zurich's third-place meet finish, host Grayslake edged Grant 71-69 for fourth place. "We're pretty satisfied. Our goal was 80 points and we got 71," Grayslake Coach Joel Peebles said.

The Rams efforts were highlighted by sophomore Merritt Day, who won the 400 yard dash. Day, who overcame a hip pointer injury, had a 52.7 clocking.

Carmel loses streak, focuses on ESCC race

The first game featured several defensive gems for Carmel, including two putouts at the plate and a triple play.

Sean McNerney started a successful day at the plate with three doubles and a single in the first game.

Carmel started strong, scoring twice in the first inning on singles by Ricky and Randy Splitt and a double by McNerney for a 2-1 lead. Joliet's Mike Caldwell had started the day with a home run.

McNerney figured in the Carmel scoring in the third inning. After Dale Carlson, Maloney and Randy Splitt singled, he delivered a key double for a 4-1 lead.

The visitors scored twice in the sixth and once in the seventh as Shawn Chambers began to tire.

The Corsairs came through in the 10th. Carlson doubled, Maloney and Randy Splitt singled and a perfect bunt by Randy Splitt loaded the bases. Carlson the scored the winning run the same way the second game would end - with a wild pitch.

"It was a great team effort," McNerney said in between games.

The second game started out much the same as the first game did.

Five runs in the first four innings gave Carmel a 5-1 lead.

Eric Bruksch doubled home Ricky Splitt and later scored on a ground out in the first. Jim Cooney, Randy Olczyk singled and Don Anderson doubled. A sacrifice fly made it a four-run lead.

Three straight singles scored a Carmel run in the fourth inning but Joliet rallied for a 5-5 tie.

Chicago Bear learns from brother's example

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Every athlete knows someone like this. They may be big in stature but when it comes to the key eye-hand coordination and natural athletic ability, they fall short. But each year these would-be athletes try out for the team, happy to sit on the bench and contribute.

Mike Koszowski was just such an athlete. "He took a lot of heat but he kept his focus on what he wanted to accomplish," his younger brother Glen Koszowski said.

Glenn's older brother eventually overcame his weaknesses, and played football for the University of Colorado. Later, he played with the Miami Dolphins.

The younger Koszowski, now a receiver with the Chicago Bears, brought an upbeat message about how athletics can help in other areas of life to Grayslake High.

The students, many of them would-be athletes themselves, heard how Glen's older brother helped give him direction.

"Athletics can help teach you discipline," Koszowski said.

One day when Koszowski was in high school, the elite clique of the school was passing around a "funny looking cigarette. He said he didn't want it. He said, 'this isn't part of my plans. I want to be a professional athlete'. I walked away proud of my brother," Koszowski, who watched the incident from a nearby bush, said.

Koszowski, 26, may not be a household name - it's not McMahon or Payton, among Bears fans, but he knows how fortunate he is to be on the roster. Playing at Brigham Young University in his senior year, he injured his knee. He was drafted in the 11th round.

Koszowski has faced more fierce opposition than any defensive back can administer. When his family moved to Davenport, Iowa, he was causally minding his own business when, someone, for some unknown reason, began firing a shotgun, a friend was caught in the crossfire. He came to Koszowski in the final seconds of his life.

"This was the first time I ever saw death. When my friend died in my arms I realized how much courage it took my brother to do what he did," Koszowski said.

Koszowski urged the students to be careful in making their choices.

"One thing you need is to have one good friend whom you can tell anything to," he said.

-He said the Rams should use their God-given talents to, if possible, obtain a free education via a scholarship.

-Of course, there were questions regarding his present employer.

-He said quarterback Jim

McMahon "does a lot of things which go unnoticed".

-On Mike Ditka: "he expects perfection from everybody. He is really a genuinely nice person. He'll go to bat for you".

-On William Perry: "I would never count him out".

Q.What should you look for in sunglasses?

A.The American Optometric Association says sunglasses should screen out 75 to 90 percent of available sunlight and be made of quality impact-resistant glass or plastic. Tinted lenses that transmit 65 percent or more light are classified as fashion tinted lenses and are not sunglass lenses.

Most manufacturers do not provide light transmittance levels on sunglass labels, making it difficult for consumers to judge. As a general rule, if the eyes can be seen clearly through the lenses, they are probably not dark enough.

Ultraviolet Radiation Protection—Most sunglasses screen out or absorb some UV radiation but some do a better job than others. Maximum UV protection is strongly recommended for people who are "at risk" and suggested for all others. Maximum protection means a lens blocks or absorbs the full range of UV-B and UV-A radiation (290-380 nm).

Most sunglass labels today do not give consumers sufficient information about UV protection. But consumers can obtain advice from their optometrist, who has access to manufacturers' technical materials, as well as information about the individual's eyes and lifestyle.

Our Mortgages Come In All Different Styles, Too.

We have more ways to get you inside a house than a locksmith. All our loan decisions are made locally, with competitive rates and flexible terms. And all our mortgages feature something called Mortgage Plus, a package of valuable coupons good for a variety of financial services.

So stop by any one of our offices. Or talk to your nearby Realtor about us. The next thing you know, you could be unpacking large boxes.

FIRST OF AMERICA Bank

Adjustable rate—
Generally gets you more house for less of a monthly payment. Within certain limits, though, both the interest rate and payment can go up or down.

Convertible—
The same as adjustable, except there's the option of converting to a fixed rate. Simply pay a conversion fee to lock in your interest rate.

Fixed rate—
The interest rate stays the same for the life of the loan. Which means so does your monthly loan payment.

Biweekly—
Payments are made every two weeks instead of monthly. Saves on interest charges. Builds equity faster.

FHA—
A government insured program that lets you own a home with only a minimal down payment.

Letter to the Editor

Truth Editor:

I am a very dedicated, concerned and loyal citizen of Antioch. It aggravates me very much how Mr. Long harassed our last mayor with wrongful accusations in the paper.

He has always been a very dedicated and truthful mayor for all of his 16 years that he has served as mayor of Antioch.

I believe the village ordinance states that an official can not hold an office if he owns a tavern directly or indirectly.

The first time the now mayor of Antioch ran for office and was elected, he only served three years of his term, then retired and moved from Antioch to Mundelein and never finished his last year.

This is supposed to be a dedicated and truthful mayor after being sworn into office?

Grayslake residents face water restrictions

Water customers in Grayslake will be facing water use restrictions next week.

Effective Monday, May 22, the outdoor water use restrictions will be in effect under the authority of an ordinance passed by the village last year.

Restrictions for residents living west of Lake St. are from 8 p.m. on even-numbered calendar days until 6 a.m. the following day. Restrictions apply for persons having a house or business address in the village and on the west side of the street may engage in water use for all purposes.

For residents east of Lake St., from 8 p.m. on odd-numbered days persons having a house or business address in the village on the east side of Lake St. may use water for exterior uses.

"Your cooperation with these restrictions may reduce the need for additional restrictions," Grayslake Village Mgr. Mike Ellis said in a letter which will be distributed to residents.

Under the ordinance adopted in response to last year's drought, Ellis and Roy Wickersheim, superintendent of public works, were given the authority to declare when water use restrictions are necessary.

Mayor Marvin Smith pointed out that next year all communities which are being served by Lake Michigan water will have to impose water use restrictions from May 15 to Sept. 15. He added that the village has been told by landscapers that watering lawns during the day is useless because of evaporation.

Signs will be posted around the village reminding residents of the restrictions.

Arbor Vista Club members win

The Arbor Vista Garden Club Standard Flower Show "Fact and Fantasy" at the Lake County College Atrium, Grayslake, was a tremendous success.

A National Council of State Garden Clubs Creativity Award was won by Irene Sembach in the design division, "Mythical Gods and Goddesses." An award of merit went to Jan Kiley for her "Clivia" in the horticulture division.

Blue ribbons were presented to Sharyn Herian, Irene Sembach, Phyllis Rouse, Dolores Wilt, Sherry Sanelli and Jennifer Sheldon in the design division.

In the Lake County Area Vocational Center special projects class, Chris Browne won first place on a epergne centerpiece.

First place winners in the horticulture division were Pat Hoffman, Jan Kiley, Donna Collazo, Anne Kekatos, Ruth Collier, Lilo Eisenstaedt, Ann Rodhouse, Florence Piorier and Gail Alter.

Completes course

The Elmhurst Management Program (EMP), a specifically designed format of the business administration major at Elmhurst College was completed by several Lakeland area residents. Those students are, Marilyn Kedzie of Grayslake, Mary Ellen Gragg of Lake Zurich, and Stuart Schwartz of Mundelein.

Arts council to present cultural center plans

Members of the influential Lake County Arts Council will present long-range plans for a cultural center to the golf course committee of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. at a meeting at 9 a.m. on Monday, May 22, at Brae Loch Golf Club.

John W. Lynn of Mundelein, council secretary, said the nearly two-dozen-member group will present a study showing how a cultural center will benefit the entire county.

Lynn said the cultural center proposal is being presented to the golf course committee because the county owns 58 acres at Center St. and Rte. 45, Gages Lake, that is being eyed for public use.

The golf course committee, headed by County Board Rep. Audrey Nixon of North Chicago, is considering expansion of Brae Loch with an additional nine holes.

Lynn, who is founder of the Kirk Players theatrical group, said the council is excited about the opportunity of having a permanent home providing facilities for all the arts.

The Lake County Fair Assn., looking at establishing theater facilities for the annual exposition, is interested in the center proposal. The fairgrounds are adjacent to the Gages Lake site.

Lynn handles fair entertainment. "Having a theater across from the fairgrounds would be a natural," he stated.

Members of Nixon's committee include Jim Fields, John Balen, Norman Geary, Robert Neal and Eleanor Rostron.
